CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct aims to set out the minimum standards for members of the Sporting Shooters Pistol Club (SSPC). It applies when competing, practicing, training, spectating or taking part in club-sanctioned activities.

All Members

- Act within the rules and spirit of the Shooting Sports.
- Promote safety above all else by way of decisions, actions and speech.
- Seek out and participate in opportunities for members to learn appropriate protocols, behaviors and skills.
- Agree not to discriminate against any person, regardless of their age, race, gender, ability, cultural background, sexuality or religion.
- Abide by the decisions of Range Officers and Club Trainers.
- Abide by the decisions of the Committee and in the event of disagreement or dispute, raise the matter in an appropriate forum and situation.
- Be responsible and not handle or use a firearm while under the influence of alcohol or any other drug or if you are incapable of exercising responsible control over the firearm.
- Act with integrity and objectivity, and accept responsibility for your decisions and actions.
- Promote fair play over winning.
- Show respect for other members, range officers and committee members.

Range Officers and Club Trainers

- Be responsible for and act to maintain the safety and welfare of the members while conducting shooting activities.
- Help each member (including potential members, NORIs, etc.) to improve their shooting skills and reach their potential. Respect the talent, developmental stage and goals of each person and encourage them with positive, constructive and appropriate feedback.
- Ensure all members are included and can participate.
- Be consistent, impartial and objective when making decisions.
- Obtain and maintain appropriate qualifications and keep up-to-date with coaching and instruction practices to assist in the training and development of members.
